

REDHOOK ALE BREWERY

Micro-brewery & Restaurant

Location

Seattle, Washington

Project Description

An expansion of the Redhook Brewing facility to an existing structure with an underground tunnel connecting the old and new buildings. Work included remodeling the historic trolley-car facility into a speciality micro-brewery. Conversion entailed total structural renovation with no change to the exterior.

Actual Work Performed

Construction Manager / General Contractor

Owner

Redhook Ale Brewery Inc.
14300 NE 145th Street
Woodinville, Washington

Architect

Triangle Works
R.G. Satierwhite

Award

1992 ABC Project of the Year

